The Georgetown Library offers access to tens of thousands of books, movies, and music in various formats.

Along with our collection, we also offer access to the Lakeland Library Cooperative and MeLCat statewide catalogs which adds millions additional items available with your library card.

1

Click on LIBRARY CATALOG from our website at gtpl.org. Searching can be done without logging into your account, but logging in will allow you to place holds and access more content.

To log in, click on LOG IN/ MY GTPL. From here you will be asked to enter your barcode and PIN. If you have not previously done so, it will also prompt you to set up a username. For more on your account, please consult the Managing Your Library Account brochure.

From your account, you will be able to see items checked out, place holds, renew items, and more.

2

The landing page will show you a variety of reading lists made by local librarians and library staff from across the country as well as items recently reviewed by patrons. If you click on EXPLORE, you will also see lists of new materials, award winners, and bestsellers that our library owns.

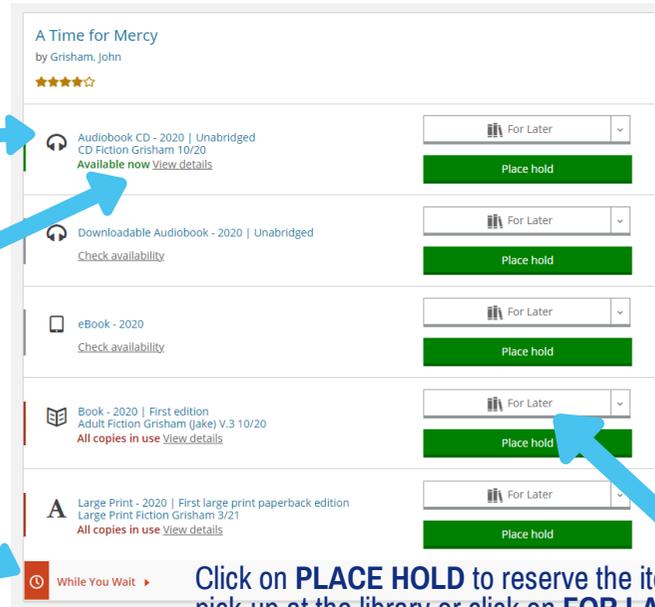

3

The catalog can be searched by keyword, title, author, and more. Enter additional terms such as age level (teen, kids, etc.), language, and format (large print, audiobook, etc.) to further narrow your search.

4

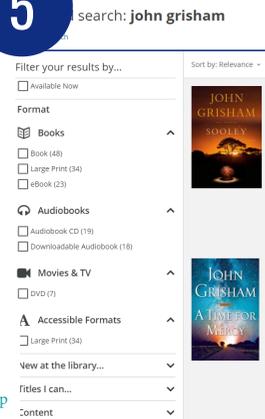

Your search will display the various formats as well as availability.

Some searches will also offer similar titles to check out WHILE YOU WAIT.

Click on PLACE HOLD to reserve the item for pick-up at the library or click on FOR LATER to save to your list of items to check out in the future.

5

Searches can also be filtered by various additional criteria such as audience level, format, reviews, and more. Use the filter box on the left hand side to narrow your search.

6

Not finding what you want? You can broaden your search to the Lakeland Library Cooperative and/or MeLCat catalog (under SEARCH OTHER RESOURCES)
